What is Kāverī?

Kāverī is a family-oriented residential Samskritam camp held during May 28 - 30, 2016 in Saratoga, California (15 miles from San Jose). It is designed by Samskrita Bharati to impart Samskritam language skills using modern teaching techniques in a fun, friendly, interactive and informal atmosphere. Back to top

Who can attend?

Anyone can attend, and no prior knowledge of Samskritam is required. Familiarity with an Indian language is recommended, as our syllabus is tailored for such students<sup>1</sup>. Anyone under the age of 18 must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. Back to top

Who are the instructors?

A team of experienced instructors will teach the various levels. This year we have a group of expert teachers from India as well as from other parts of the US. Back to top

Where will the camp be held?

The camp will be held at Walden West Science Center, 15555 Sanborn Road, Saratoga, CA 95070. Phone: (408) 573-3050; <http://www.sccoe.org/waldenwest/facility/>

When will the camp start / end?

Registration: 8:00 AM on Saturday May 28th

Instruction/Camp ends: 2:00 PM on Monday May 30th

On Saturday May 28th, breakfast will be served from 8:00 AM to 9:30 AM. Back to top

What is the airport closest to the campsite?

San Jose International Airport (SJC) is the closest airport located 18 miles North of Point Walden West Center. San Francisco International Airport (SFO) is another option (40 miles North of Point Walden West Center). Back to top

---

<sup>1</sup> Anyone, regardless of background, is welcome to attend. However, our syllabus makes frequent use of Samskr̥tam words that are commonly found in Indian regional languages, and also uses standard Indian cultural motifs to help expedite the teaching process. Those who are unfamiliar with these may have difficulty following the class material.

What do I do once I arrive at the camp?

Follow the signs for “Kāverī” and arrive at the registration desk. Samskrita Bharati volunteers will be present at the campsite on Saturday from 8:00 AM onwards. Back to top

What kind of classes will be provided for children?

Classes for children will be based on their grade level and/or age and how many children attend the camp. If there is sufficient enrollment, we will have one class for ages 6 through 8, one class for ages 9 through 12 and one for ages 13 through 18. A separate class for children 5 or younger can be arranged provided parents of these children volunteer two hours of their time. Samskrita Bharati has developed a child-friendly curriculum based on conversation, games, songs and other activities.

Back to top

What level should I register for?

If you are a Samskrita Bharati student, please discuss this with your teacher. You can also contact us for more information. Back to top

Do you provide course material?

Yes, course material will be provided for all registered students. Supplementary books will be available for purchase at the campsite. Participants must bring their own notebooks, pens, pencils etc. Although reference books are unnecessary, participants may bring such books along. Back to top

Can I make a video / audio recording of the classes?

Currently there are no such plans. It may be possible to record the sessions if the instructor and participants agree. The final decision rests with the instructors, who may require the recordings to be turned off at any time, for any reason. Please note that these recordings can only be used for personal non-commercial use. Back to top

What kind of food will be served at the camp?

Breakfast, lunch and dinner will be catered by one of the Bay Area vegetarian restaurants. Tea, coffee and snacks will be provided during break time. If you have a preference for snacks for yourself or your kids, please bring them with you. You will not have time to go shopping during the camp. Back to top

What are the lodging facilities?

Participants will sleep in lodges (dormitories) equipped with electricity and hot running water. Mattresses will be provided on dormitory style bunk beds. You will need to bring pillows, bed sheets and blankets. Back to top
